SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to a trespassing call at a vacant residence. A female, who had been previously trespassed from the property, was located inside. She was arrested and cited. Officers also responded to a larceny at a convenience store. The female suspect left the store before police arrived and trespassed into a nearby occupied residence. When officers arrived, the female attempted to flee over a fence. After a slight struggle she was eventually detained and determined to have 6 outstanding warrants. She was arrested and booked on her warrants as well as resisting arrest. She also attempted to take drugs into the jail with her and was charged accordingly.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was our last day of workweek. Officers were call to call tonight. Officers responded to a business where an employee was found deceased in the office. Stanislaus County Corner responded to the business and took possession of the decedent. Calls for service slowed as the night progressed which allowed officers to catch up on reports.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Ofc. Conrad

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 5

CATEGORIES

2 Narcotics
1 Suspicious Incident

1 Juvenile Runaway

1 Damage Property

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Tonight was a relatively slow shift for a Saturday, allowing officers to catch up on their reports. The call of the night was a self-initiated contact on a person an officer recognized to be on searchable probation. In compliance with the suspect's search terms, the officer conducted a probation search and located illegal narcotics. The suspect was arrested and released on a citation.
